Subject: Weekly Update #10: Thank You and Qs/Feedback Welcome
Date: Tuesday, September 22, 2020 4:52:39 PM

Hello, everyone.

There have been few times since March when there hasn't been something to share out with all of you about the pandemic and everything we're doing to adjust. However, this week there's nothing significant to pass along. The university is continuing on with a mix of online, hybrid, and face-to-face classes in large part to a cooperative campus community doing its part to test regularly and social distance. Many thanks to all of you for contributing to a highly functioning, very successful environment.

Please continue to ask any questions you might have; we're always open to any and all feedback. We want to continue an open dialogue and make sure you all have the support you need. And, do let us know if you have any broader concerns or questions, which we might bring forward for further discussion.

Best,
