 Mayflower Group, 1990-91

In 1977 representatives of various legal and educational organizations met at the Mayflower Hotel to discuss legal education issues. Taking its name from that meeting, the Mayflower Group, since 1987, has consisted of the officers of CEOs of the American Association of Law Schools, the American Bar Association Section on Legal Education, and the Law School Admission Council. Its goal is to foster cooperation among the major institutions involved in establishing guidelines for legal education.
