Correspondence

Microfilm copy of a dissertation titled "Lorado Taft: American Sculptor and Art Missionary" by Lewis W. Williams, II, a Ph.D. dissertation in art, University of Chicago, March 1958. Cross referenced to box 6.

The dissertation includes extensive quotations from documents in the Taft Papers. Pages 1-49 relate to youth and Paris, pages 50-55 to Chicago, and pages 86-110 to the "vast schemes and vast accomplishments" of the 1910-22 period. Pages 111-145 relate to his final years from 1922 to 1936. Mr. Williams gives an evaluation and criticism of Taft's work from pages 146 to 223. There is a summary on pages 224-225. An excellent catalog of Taft's work is included on pages 227 to 301. An appendix including documents and publications by Taft is on pages 302-325. Bibliography is given on pages 326-377. Photographic plates are reproduced on pages 377-400.
