

Funeral Services Today For Miss Marion E. Sparks

2-12-29
Short funeral services for the Miss Marion E. Sparks '95, librarian of the University chemistry department, who died Sunday night at the Burnham hospital, will be held at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon at the Renner undertaking home, Urbana. The body will be taken to Ohio for burial according to tentative plans announced by Miss Sparks' sister, Mrs. Robert Hughes Paisley, of Mt. Vernon.

Miss Sparks was born December 5, 1872. She attended the Ottawa township, Marseilles, and Seneca high schools, entering the University to graduate in 1895 with a degree of bachelor of arts. She received a degree of bachelor of library science in 1899, and a master of arts degree in 1900.

In 1904 Miss Sparks accepted a position as resident bibliographer in the nutrition investigation laboratory of the University, which position she held until 1910. In 1912 she became assistant in the chemistry library and at the time of her death she was librarian of the chemistry department.

Miss Sparks was the author of several articles, including "Birds vs. Street Cars," "Note of a Brilliant Meteor," "Dialect for English." "A Census of the Periodical Literature of Chemistry," and a book entitled "Chemical Literature and Its Uses."

Miss Sparks leaves one sister, Mrs. Robert Hughes Paisley of Mt. Vernon, who graduated from the University in the class of 1904.

Funeral Services Today For Miss Marion E. Sparks

Short funeral services for the Miss Marion E. Sparks '95, librarian of the University chemistry department, who died Sunday night at the Burnham hospital, will be held at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon at the Renner undertaking home, Urbana. The body will be taken to Ohio for burial according to tentative plans announced by Miss Sparks' sister, Mrs. Robert Hughes Paisley of Mt. Vernon.

Miss Sparks was born December 5, 1872. She attended the Ottawa township, Marseilles, and Seneca high schools, entering the University to graduate in 1895 with a degree of bachelor of arts. She received a degree of bachelor of library science in 1899, and a master of arts degree in 1900.

In 1904 Miss Sparks accepted a position as resident bibliographer in the nutrition investigation laboratory of the University, which position she held until 1910. In 1912 she became assistant in the chemistry library and at the time of her death she was librarian of the chemistry department.

Miss Sparks was the author of several articles, including "Birds vs. Street Cars," "Note of a Brilliant Meteor," "Dialect for [sic] English," "A Census of the Periodical Literature of Chemistry," and a book entitled "Chemical Literature and Its Uses."

Miss Sparks leaves one sister, Mrs. Robert Hughes Paisley of Mt. Vernon, who graduated from the University in the class of 1904.

[handwritten date: 2-12-29]