University Statistics.
The number of students in the University is 941.
The faculty consists of eighty-one instructors.
There are sixteen buildings upon the University Campus.
The amount of ground occupied by the University Campus is 710 acres.
There are three literary societies, two for men and one for women, in the University.
There are ten fraternities in the University, two of which are women's.
There are thirty student organizations in the University.
Since the organization of the University it has had four presidents or regents.
There are 20,000 volumes in the general library.
The number of periodicals in the library is 106.
The issue of the Illini, the weekly college paper, is 1,000 copies.

Interesting Items.
The first person to sign the entrance papers in the University was James Newton Matthews, of the Class of '72. He graduated with the degree of B. L. At present he is a physician at Mason, Ill.
The first two women to graduate were Miss Alice Chester, of Champaign, and Mrs. H. S. Reynolds (now Miss Frances Adelia Potter).
The number of former students who afterwards became instructors in the University is 80. There are now 15 former students connected with the University, 6 of whom are professors, 1 associate professor and 5 assistant professors.
The associate professor is G. W. Myers. (Now on leave.)
The first books purchased by the library were a set of Daniel Webster's works, in six volumes.

A Query.
If a hill-grown member of one of the Societies at the University of Illinois is a 'Kat,' would it be proper to call Robert Kirby a "kitten"?