John Laskowski

User Experience Coordinator in the Office of Digital Strategies

What do you do in the Library? I work to facilitate a successful and user-friendly experience for across our website and our physical spaces.

What do you do when you're not working? Even for a librarian I'm nerdy. My major hobbies are woodcarving, bird watching, and genealogy research, and I seemed to fall further into each of those rabbit holes during the pandemic. I started carving things about six or seven years ago for the kids' fairy garden and got hooked on it. Now I carve all kinds of animals, signs, and things people ask me to do. I was determined to photograph a pileated woodpecker this summer...my son does a spot-on, mildly embarrassing impression of me seeing one. I've had this photo of my grandfather from World War II. He's the one on the left. It never really occurred to me until recently to look into who the man on the right was. On the back my grandmother had written 'Jess and Bill Eaton' so I started looking on Ancestry.com and a few hours later I had connected with Bill's son – in Brooklyn - who had never seen this photo before but was overjoyed to share it with his brother and their chapter of the American Legion.

Announcements

Do you have a question for Dean Wilkin?

L-CAP's quarterly meeting with Dean Wilkin will be Thursday, September 16. If you have a question or a topic you'd like us to address during this meeting, please contact an L-CAP member or use our webtools form to remain anonymous. Questions/topics we receive by noon on September 15 will be discussed at the September 16 meeting.

LCAP election coming October 1

LCAP has been working to expand our constituency to include reclassified Academic Professional positions. Part of this expansion includes adding people in those positions to the ballot and eligibility list. We want to ensure the Library's definitions of these positions matches those of the campus, which are still being revised, and we are delaying the 2021 L-CAP election until October 1 in the hope campus definitions will be resolved in time. One way or the other, the election will go forward, October 1.

L-CAP has seven elected members who serve two-year terms. Council of Academic Professionals reps from the Library also serve as ex-officio members of L-CAP. We hold a regular business meeting monthly, and meet with Dean Wilkin quarterly. We organize an AP forum annually, distribute the AP Update newsletter, host occasional social meetups, and advise Library administration on issues such as the AP promotion program, investigation time, and campus actions affecting APs (such as position re-classifications). L-CAP has increasingly been involved in Library governance through direct feedback to Dean Wilkin and the Library Executive Committee. An L-CAP member serves on the Inclusion in Governance Task Force. If you have questions, please reach out to us at lcap@library.illinois.edu, and watch for informal L-CAP office hours between Sept 20 and Oct 1.

In the October election, three seats will be open for 2021-2023, and we encourage you to keep your name on the ballot!

Be recognized!

For the Library's Recognizing Excellence blog, please send external (to U of I) summer presentations you have given or publications that have appeared between May and August by end of day Friday, October 1 to Heather Murphy, hmurphy@illinois.edu.
