

Please join us in celebrating
Black Futures!

MARCH 2-4 AND 6-8 THE BLA X TRAVAGANZA!!

The History, Philosophy, and Newspaper Library brings the community a series of events highlighting the research, creativity, and brilliance of Black professors on campus.

Feedback Loop, BLACKMAU (2021)

David Wright Faladé

Professor, Department of English
Reading from Black Cloud Rising
2 March 2023 | 4PM | Main Library,
1408 W. Gregory Drive, Room 220

Alexandra Barbier

Postdoctoral Research Associate,
Department of Dance
Stations of Black Loss -
Work(s) in Progress
3 March 2023 | 4PM | Main Library,
1408 W. Gregory Drive, Room 220

Courtney Becks (Cancelled)

Assistant Professor, University Library
The Socialization of Love
Work-in-Progress Table Reading
4 March 2023 | 4PM | Levis Center,
919 W. Illinois Street, Room 422

Reiko Huffman

Assistant Professor of Scenic Design,
Department of Theatre
Scenic Design and the Process
6 March 2023 | 4PM | Main Library,
1408 W. Gregory Drive, Room 220

Nekita Thomas

Assistant Professor of Graphic Design,
School of Art + Design
Design and the Black Spatial Imaginary
Workshop: *Creating Black Affirming Public Spaces

7 March 2023 | 4PM | Main Library,
1408 W. Gregory Drive, Room 220

La Fête

DJs N the Library

*bla(CK)mau—aka Stacey Robinson,
Chris Kinson, and Kamau Grantham*

Closing Celebration

8 March 2023 | 7PM | Music and Performing Arts Library, 1114 W. Nevada Street.

This event is supported in part by the Humanities Research Institute
Supplemental Event Fund