Ellen and Nirmal Chatterjee Exhibition Gallery

January 24 – May 28, 2020

Join us in The Rare Book & Manuscript Library for our spring exhibition, “Divine Madness,” curated by Dr. Cait Coker, Siobhan McKissic, Ruthann E. Miller & Ana D. Rodriguez.

What are the limits of possibility? How far can humans go, physically and intellectually? And what are they prepared to do to get what they want?

These are only a few of the questions that “Divine Madness” attempts to answer. Drawing on texts ancient and modern, the topics examined have numerous intersections geographically, historically, and philosophically. This exhibit is a collaborative exploration of the inner and outer lives of people as reflected in the expansive collections at the RBML.

This event is free and open to all. Refreshments will be served.
