Welcome to the second issue of The Benefactor. This issue includes acknowledgement of monetary and in-kind gifts, as well as donations made in honor of an occasion or in memory of an individual. You'll also find brief notes about the history of the Education and Social Science Library since its founding in 1901 as the Pedagogical Library, and information about the October 2008 Youth Literature Festival for families.

Libraries are often considered insatiable in their quest for funds to support their programs, services, and collections. Our many donors help to offset those demands through their generous support. Whether we purchase a relatively inexpensive but delightful new children's book or an expensive set of scholarly reference works, donations are used to the greatest benefit. Thank you!
