Welcome to the 11th issue of The Benefactor. This issue includes acknowledgement of monetary and in-kind gifts received from October 2021 through April 2023.

Your generous donations help the Social Sciences, Health, and Education Library meet the needs of a wide variety of users. Thank you for your support!

Library Friends Donations

Thank you to the following donors for monetary contributions made through Library Friends from October 2021 through April 2023. Unless specified, these funds are typically used to purchase books requested by students and faculty, along with other expensive items.

Cindy Ashwill & Steve Ashwill

Dr. DeLysa Burnier & Dr. David Descutner

Dr. Lynda Carlson & Dr. George Carlson

Yali Feng & Dr. Steven G. Anderson

(in memory of Iris Chang)

Dr. James D. Lewis & Nancy Esteb

Dr. James McKechnie & Karen McKechnie

Dr. Shwuyi Leu Memorial Collection

The Dr. Shwuyi Leu Memorial Collection is housed in the University Library's S-Collection, which was made possible through the generous donations of family and friends. The collection reflects her interest in and research about Asian Pacific American children's literature.

Current Endowed Support

The Mary Kathryn Bieniecki Memorial Endowment Fund was established by Henry Bieniecki in memory of his wife. It provides support to the School Collection of literature for children and young adults.

The Fessler Family University Library Endowment was established to support acquisition of material related to coaching, training, sport history, sport psychology, the impact of sport on cultures, the science of sport, as well as topics related to specific sports.

The James E. and Sue E. Freytag Library Endowment Fund was established to support acquisition and preservation of all formats of material appropriate for maintaining and improving the collections, programs, and services of the Education and Social Science Library.

The Lambda Literature Endowment Fund was established by Roger Clark, an alumnus, to acquire materials for the gay literature collection at the Library.

The Shirley and John Mahaffey Library Endowment Fund was established to support the former Education and Social Science Library, now SSHEL.

The Merten J. Mandeville Endowment Fund was established by a gift from a Professor of Management at the University of Illinois on the occasion of his retirement in 1966. It provides support to purchase works relating to parapsychology and the occult.

The Dr. Patricia J. O'Brien Endowment Fund supports the anthropology collections and services provided by the University Library.

The Ernest J. Reece Endowment Fund was established to support innovations in library and information science library services in the former Library and Information Science Library, and continues to support LIS collections and services.

The Sai Collection Fund supports the acquisition, preservation, conservation of materials, and provision of access to materials directly relating to Sri Sathya Sai Baba (1926-2011).

The James P. and Diane P. Staes Charitable Remainder Unitrust, established by Jim and Diane Staes as a deferred gift, will benefit the study of children's literature and support the School Collection by providing annual income for the acquisition and/or preservation of literature.

The Fred E. Sweitzer Endowment Fund was provided by an alumnus to support the anthropology collection.

Consolidated Space for SSHEL

SSHEL has consolidated into what was previously our South space in the Main Library due to the opening of the Orange Room in what was previously SSHEL North. This process was completed in Fall 2022, with all SSHEL staff and services available in Room 101 of the Main Library. Room 123 contains most of our consolidated collection, while some materials previously housed in SSHEL have been moved to other University of Illinois libraries or to the Oak Street Library storage facility. All librarian offices have been moved to Room 101.
